- Cautions

If you are looking for a job you might come across ads from employment agencies that promise

- Promises to get you a job and guaranteed income
- Upfront fees, even when you are guaranteed a refund if you are dissatisfied
- Employment agencies whose ads read like job ads
- Promotions of "previously undisclosed" government jobs. All federal jobs are

Work-At-Home Companies can also be dangerous. Be sure to ask questions such as:

- What tasks will I have to perform?
- Will I be paid a salary or will my pay be based on commission?
- Who will pay me?
- When will I get my first paycheck?

- What is the total cost of the work-at-home program, including supplies, equipment and membership?
- Some multilevel marketing plans are legitimate. However, others are illegal pyramid schemes. In particular, if you are thinking about joining what appears to be a legitimate multilevel marketing plan, be sure to do your research first.
